

University of the Pacific Scholarly Commons

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1861-01-01

Letter from Daniel H. Muir to John Muir, ca. 1861

Daniel H. Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Daniel H., "Letter from Daniel H. Muir to John Muir, ca. 1861" (1861). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1091.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1091>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Dear Brother John

I wrote a letter to you 2 or 3 weeks ago and when I got a chance to post it I forgot time after time but now I will make the best of it by telling you what has happened since. Since that we have moved into Hortage John Reid has moved on to the farm & Mary and Anna and I have been at the High School One week and Joanna is at an intermediate but none of us have been examined yet as Mr. Mun the Superintendent has been in Milwaukee ever since we have been here but Judge Doty gave us permission to go to such schools as we would be likely to get into till Mr. Mun returns. but now there will be two weeks vacation and the Superintendent will be back before they are ended the teacher in the under flat is Mr. Megoffin the teacher in the upper part is Miss Briggs the teacher in the intermediate school is Miss Booth. Stebens two children are at the high school. A little boy about two feet long is a better reader than either you or I. I guess and he studies Arithmetic Algebra natural Philosophy Lecture Sec. last Sunday when I went into the Presbyterian meeting I was surprised to see one of the seats occupied by Mr. Steber & his wife & family + John I would like to have a talk with you as this is but a poor excuse

I am getting along fine

I hope you are

Good bye
write soon